

THEN

ABOVE: Baum's Department Store, 525-531 Main St. in Green Bay, went out of business in 1959.

NEVILLE PUBLIC MUSEUM OF BROWN COUNTY

RIGHT: The site of the former Baum's Department Store is currently a parking lot.

USA TODAY NETWORK-WISCONSIN

THROWBACK THURSDAY

Baum's

Baum's Department Store, 525-531 Main St., in Green Bay went out of business in 1959. John Baum opened his first dry goods store in 1888. The building was subsequently operated as the Adlo Arcade until it was damaged by fire in 1972. The entire block was later cleared as part of the Port Plaza Mall downtown redevelopment area.

NOW

